Year End Statement

01.Jan.2014 - 31.Dec.2014

Dear Anand Nidamanuru,

Enclosed please find your plan statement as of 31.Dec.2014.

For questions in connection with the year-end accounting please contact UBS Customer Service Centre or the contact person for your participation plans. In the event of inconsistencies in the data, please submit your objection to us in writing (within 30 days of this letter).

Information on the new church tax payment procedure beginning on 1 January 2015:

From 1 January 2015, we must automatically pay, to the tax office, church tax on the investment income of members of a tax-collecting religious community. This only applies, however, if your investment income exceeds the lump-sum allowance (single person: EUR 801, jointly liable persons: EUR 1,602) or if you have not provided us with an exemption form and capital gains tax is levied. In order to make the church tax payment, we are legally obligated once a year to query the Federal Central Tax Office (BZSt) as to your religion, in coded form. The inquiry as to religion and thus the automatic payment of church tax are only possible if you have provided your personal tax identification number (TIN) in EquatePlus. If you do not wish the BZSt to disclose your religion in coded form, you may block the disclosure of data before the 30th of June of any year for the following year (www.formulare-bfinv.de, Kirchensteuer). A blocking order that has already been submitted is valid until it is revoked. If a blocking order is in effect, we will not make any payments of church tax. In the following year you are then required to file a tax return for church tax collection purposes.

Kind regards
