If the currency of a financial product or financial service is different from the currency of your home country, the return may increase or decrease as a result of currency fluctuations. Tax treatment depends on the individual circumstances and may be subject to change in the future. UBS does not provide legal or tax advice and makes no representations as to the tax treatment of assets or the investment returns thereon either in general or with reference to specific client's circumstances and needs. Clients should obtain independent tax advice on the suitability of programmes, assets or instruments before investing and as they may consider appropriate. For any further explanations that you may require, please refer to our UBS Dictionary of Banking at www.ubs.com or to your UBS client advisor. It is possible that other costs, including taxes, related to transactions in connection with the financial instrument or the investment service may arise for the client that are not paid via the investment firm or imposed by it.
